“All forms of violence are an affront to a person’s dignity, and for many people they will say the humiliation is the worst part....”

Dr Allan Wade

“Perpetrators know the force of humiliation. So one of the first guiding principles if we are ever intervening in cases of violence is how we do I uphold the dignity of this person... so that includes offering choice, making safety....etc. Trying to learn what people already know, feel, believe and do... their existing competencies... rather than jumping in with giving advice for example....”

Dr Allan Wade

“One of the most common forms of resistance is feigned (pretended) obedience.”

Dr Allan Wade

“...We all have a role, we all have a part, whether we want to take it up consciously or not.”
