My Shared Insights

A focus on financial abuse

Insight Exchange hosts a series of narratives based on interviews with people with lived experience of domestic and family violence focused on the financial abuse they experienced. The initiative to conduct the interviews was from an informal collaboration by Rosie's Place, WASH House, and the Mt Druitt Family Violence Team. The narratives were provided by the individuals for the benefit of others. The interviews were conducted by Rosie's Place and the narratives were assembled by the Insight Exchange team.

Read the latest narrative we have published:

- Deepa "You are not my wife. I just keep you to work here."
- Amrita 'He only married me so he could keep me as a slave. I was tricked into marrying him.'
- Tamara 'Meanwhile, he was pouring money through the poker machines.'

Read the other 'focus on financial abuse' narratives on the Voices of Insight page or the supporting my independence page.

Insight Exchange continues to welcome expression of interest to share lived experience insights. You can read more on the Be a participant page on the Insight Exchange website.

A focus on financial abuse

NEW: We have collated 18 examples of lived experience insights of financial abuse into a collection hosted on Insight Exchange.

18 women shared their experiences to inform social, service and systemic responses to domestic and family violence.

We invite you to read the resource and share it with contacts and colleagues to take these voices forward where change needs to happen.

A focus on sexualised violence

Our public conversation (in Australia and globally) about sexualised violence is intensifying. How well do you understand sexualised violence and how ready are you to respond if someone shares with you?

My Dignity - My body is mine is an information and reflection resource about sexualised violence. My Dignity is for anyone who may be or has experienced sexualised violence and for anyone who may be responding. Read More
