Follow My Lead Aotearoa speaks from the voices of people with lived experience of domestic and whānau violence who need their friends, family and professionals to be more prepared to respond effectively. More prepared to respond in ways that uphold dignity and build on safety.

...“As a group, Response-Based Practice Aotearoa (RBPA) represent a range of ethnic diversities including Māori and non-Māori. The Follow My Lead Aotearoa version emerged from a shared vision between the members of RBPA where it was agreed that the original Follow My Lead document was an engaging resource which read well and could be enhanced for readers in Aotearoa. They considered how this could be done in a way that would uphold the values of Te Tiriti o Waitangi by including the presence and spiritual intelligence of Māori wisdom.” Read the background context (1 Page) about the development of Follow My Lead Aotearoa.
