LIVED EXPERIENCE INSIGHTS

Insight Exchange hosts de-identified lived experience insights of domestic and family violence, exploring what a person is having to do, or not do, to stay safe and well in the context of their relationship.

Marion – He said to my friend "I don't like you visiting because you make her far too independent."

FEEDBACK SHARED

MID-YEAR ENGAGEMENT UPDATE

Digital Engagement:

Since 1st July 2021 (5.5months) Insight Exchange website has been visited by 6,328 unique users. Users are predominantly from Australia with climbing engagement from USA, New Zealand, Canada and UK in this order.

There have been 5,656 downloads of PDF materials/resources in this time and 4.908 video viewings (2003 are unique users) on our vimeo channel.

Responder Engagement:

We have continued to work across industries supporting corporates, employee assistance programs, health and government services, specialist services working with victim-survivors, and people who use violence as well as working with statutory services and systems.

Individuals have engaged by donating content, reviews and feedback to refine resources for the benefit of many.

Exchanging Insights:

The Associates work undertaken in FY20/21 on 'Fear', the 'dilemma of disclosure' and the 'decision to disclose' will be shared in the new year to support the reflections of individuals and organisations.

The Associates work has been reactivated to form a Cross-Sector Leadership Exchange Program in 2022. Learning and insights from this program will be shared throughout the year to inform responses across disciplines and industries.
