No Hidden Door

Every sector is a possible door to information and support for victim-survivors of domestic, sexualised and family violence. Because safety and communication are inextricably linked, victim-survivors rely on the quality of public-facing communication to be informing, affirming and safe to browse.

What part is your workplace, business, service, institution, or system playing in communication to and with victim-survivors of DFSV?

No Hidden Door Reports

Between October and December 2021, Insight Exchange audited 200+ websites from five industries as sample doors in the information and support ecosystem.

- Executive Summary
- NSW Health
- Employee Assistance Programs
- Support Services
- Police

No Hidden Door Collection

“The No Hidden Doors Collection was created with the purpose of using art and image making as a way of critiquing the system. Of bearing witness to the current status quo from a lived experience-centric approach. An approach from the outside - in.” Artworks by Louise Whelan

Guidance: Website content and functions

The guidance is for industry employees responsible for designing, developing and delivering communications relating to DFSV, with a particular focus on digital platforms (websites).
