WORKPLACE RESPONSES

The response of the workplace is important to victims of domestic, family and sexualised violence for many possible reasons including their sense of self, social connections and safety. Importantly, having an income supports economic safety, keeping more options on the table for victims considering their future. Between 55 and 70 per cent of people experiencing domestic and family violence are in the paid workforce.

Insight Exchange has been established, developed and is governed by Domestic Violence Service Management (DVSM) a registered charity (ABN 26 165 400 635.). Insight Exchange has been sustained through the generous humble donations of individuals and a silent donor for the benefit of many. Launched in November 2017, Insight Exchange was designed by Domestic Violence Service Management (DVSM), in collaboration with Dr Linda Coates and Dr Allan Wade from Centre for Response-Based Practice Canada.
