Exchange initiatives

Academics are social responders

Are you involved in ethics committee decision making about studies that focus on domestic, family and sexualised violence?

Are you researching, teaching or writing about domestic, family and sexualised violence?

Are you mentoring students and leading projects involving this focus?

Are you thinking about or undertaking a PhD focused on domestic, family and sexualised violence?

There is no fence to sit on. Academics are not outside the picture. We can all stand against violence and abuse from wherever we are in society.
