

Insight initiatives

Dad - your choice hurts me

Unpaid child support hurts children and limits living. Children don't have the safety or means to contest unpaid child support debt. Their experiences of poverty are real and lasting. Day to day. Year on year. Unpaid child support is preventable poverty.

Dad your choice hurts me

View/Share/Embed the new short animation Dad your choice hurts me (4mins)

Read/Share the new landing booklets
Versions: Australia | Canada | New Zealand | Mexico

Exchange initiatives

Being Safety

Being Safety is a reflective resource written for, with and by mothers who are (or have been) parenting while subjected to violence and abuse by a co-parenting father.

“No relationship is fixed or unchanging. Our relationship to the world, others and each other changes.

Our relationship cannot be defined. It is more than 'protection'. And more than what can be seen or studied. It's ours. Our connection. Imperfect. Unfinished. Living, Responding...”

An introduction to economic abuse

View/share/embed the video 'Introduction to Economic Abuse' (23mins)

This video is for anyone who wants to learn about financial and economic abuse as a form of domestic and family violence.

A co-production of the Centre for Women's Economic Safety and Insight Exchange.

Share INSIGHT EXCHANGE
www.insightexchange.net

Vimeo

Instagram

Facebook

Linkedin

YouTube

